

No DUEL.—The New York Herald of the 23d ult., says:

The charge of dishonesty and treachery made by Mr. Edmund Randolph against Gen. Golcouria, caused the latter to send Mr. Randolph yesterday morning a verbal challenge to mortal combat, which Randolph refused to receive, and required his communication to be made in writing. Gen. Golcouria immediately sent a written challenge, which was promptly accepted. The meeting between Mr. Randolph and Gen. Golcouria did not, however, take place, in consequence of the parties not being able to agree as to the "distance and mode."
