Montreal Consulate Shaken by Bomb

1-15-80-4

MONTREAL — A small bomb exploded in the driveway of the Cuban consulate in Montreal Monday, but police said there was little damage and no injuries were reported.

One witness told police the bomb was hurled at the building from a passing car about 2 a.m., shattering some windows.

Police said they found pieces of wire and bits of a battery strewn across the ground after consular officials allowed officers to enter the yard.
