

A portion of the citizens of Augusta, says the Staunton Vindicator, assembled at July court to express the indignation of that community at the conduct of Rev. Beecher and F. Snellier in relation to the negro Sarah.

---