

Work Pardoned.—The Quincy Whig, received this morning, states that Alanson Work, one of the abolitionists imprisoned in Missouri, has been pardoned by Gov. Edwards, and had arrived at his home, near Quincy, to the great joy of his family. Barr and Thompson are yet in the penitentiary.—Chicago News.