

---

 Robert Smalls, the famous negro pilot who brought the Planter out of Charleston harbor, says that 6,000 negroes are behind the batteries at Savannah, and 20,000 in and around the forts of Charleston. He believes that in ten days he can raise a force of 10,000 loyal blacks to fight for the Union.

---