

---

BEECHER AND THE SLAVE GIRL.—A correspondent of the New York Daily News, says that the slave girl whose freedom was purchased by Mr. Beecher's congregation, absconded lately taking with her certain articles not her property. It was a trick, it is said, concocted by the master and the girl to raise the $1200. She returned to him, was quite happy, and getting along as well as could be expected.

---