

THE LOVERS TO BE BURIED TO-DAY.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE FUNERALS OF MISS
DUFF AND MR. TITUS—THEIR BODIES
REMOVED FROM SEA CLIFF,
L. I., TO BROOKLYN.

The bodies of Miss Mary S. Duff, of No. 399 Clinton-st., and her fiancé, Ellett L. Titus, of No. 440 Clinton-st., who were found dead in a bathhouse at Sea Cliff on Wednesday, were removed to their former homes in Brooklyn yesterday. The funeral of Miss Duff will take place at St. Ann's Episcopal Church at 10 a. m. to-day. Dr. Reese F. Alsop will officiate, and the burial will be in Greenwood in the family plot.

The funeral of Mr. Titus will be privately conducted to-day, at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Hodgkin, where he had lived several years. He also will be buried in Greenwood.

No new light was thrown upon the tragedy yesterday. The autopsy showed that heart disease was the cause of Miss Duff's death, but whether chloroform produced it or not—could not be told. There was a small vial of chloroform in the pocket of the coat which Mr. Titus wore.

There was some talk of a double funeral, but the friends could not agree upon the details. The family of Miss Duff desired public ceremonies, and the friends of Mr. Titus wished to have only private services.
