
FUNERALS OF THE DEAD LOVERS.

Simple funeral services were held on Saturday in Brooklyn for Miss Mary S. Duff and Ellett L. Titus, who were found dead on Wednesday in a bath-house near the home of Miss Duff's father, at Sea Cliff, L. I. The funeral of Miss Duff was from St. Ann's Protestant Episcopal Church, which she attended, and of whose Sunday school she was a member. The church was filled with friends and acquaintances when the procession reached it from No. 309 Clinton-st. The brief services were conducted by Dr. Reese F. Alsop, and the Rev. Mr. McCormack. There was no address. A quartet sang several hymns. The burial was in the family plot in Greenwood.

At an earlier hour the private services for Mr. Titus were conducted by the Rev. A. B. Kinsolving, of Christ Protestant Episcopal Church, at No. 440 Clinton-st., where Mr. Titus made his home with his aunt, Mrs. Hodgkin. His brother came from Thomasville, Ga., to attend the funeral, but the mother of the dead man was unable to come from Florida. The burial was in Mrs. Hodgkin's plot in Greenwood.
