

The Revolution in Cuba.

Special to N. Y. Herald.

HAVANA, April 3.

A Cuban, suspected of sympathy with rebellion, who had been acquitted by the court at Matanzas, was released, but finding his life in danger, concealed himself on board an American vessel. He was seized by the volunteers, and the Governor sent him under escort to this city. A party of volunteers came from Matanzas and demanded his surrender, but Gen. Dulce refused and finally appointed Cols. Herrera and Rizo to visit Matanzas and settle the matter.

The British gunboat Heron has returned from Ragged Island with confirmatory information of charges against the Spanish naval officers in the matter of the schooner Mary Lowell, seized by them.

The Prussian schr Noibe has arrived here from Jamaica, with several Mexican officers on board. They have been compelled to leave and were given passports on condition that they returned to Mexico.

Intelligence from Great Inagua reports that one of the Peruvian monitors is there.
