

THE CUBAN REVOLUTION.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—The steamer Enterprise left yesterday for Havana, with her original cargo of munitions of war. The Cuban residents here observed today, the anniversary of the revolution in the island, as a day of prayer for their country. A civic celebration took place in the evening at Cooper Institute.