THE REVOLUTIONARY LEADERS IN THE SUGAR DISTRICTS.

HAVANA, Feb. 11.—Telegraphic communication between Havana and Sagua La Grande and Villa Clara, which had been destroyed by the revolutionists, has been restored. It is reported that the leaders of the revolution in the sugar districts of Cienfuegos, Villa Clara and Trinidad are Adolfo Canales and his brother Frederic. The former was recently the American consul at Cienfuegos, and was removed at the request of Captain-General Lecanda. He was colonel of a Philadelphia regiment of volunteers during the civil war in America. The latter was until the last week the American consul at Trinidad de Cuba, and had just resigned.
