

—Some weeks ago a "Colonel Gibbons" advertised in New York for volunteers for the Carlist movement in Spain. A Carlist paper in Madrid denies that Gibbons was in the service of Don Carlos and expresses its belief that the movement was in the interest of the Cuban insurrection, as was suspected here at the time.