

HAVANA, January 29.

An English schooner from Nassau, with twenty-two native Cubans, en route to join the insurgents, was captured. Seeing capture inevitable, the schooner threw overboard the arms and ammunition aboard.

All places of public amusement are closed.