Memorial Day at Gettysburg—Speech of the Orator—Tribute to the Confederate Dead.

PENNSYLVANIA.

GETTYSBURG, PA., July 2.

Meade in his speech urges a decent burial for the Confederates.

Morton, the orator of the day, speaking of Cuba, says she is making a bold, vigorous, and as we trust, a successful effort to throw off the Spanish yoke and establish her independence. He also said: "In the fields before us are the graves of the rebel dead now sunk to the level of the plain, unmarked, unhonored and unknown. They were our countrymen, of our blood, language and history. They displayed a courage worthy of their country and of a better cause, and we may drop a tear to their memory. The news of this fatal field carried agony to thousands of Southern homes, and the wail of despair was heard in the everglades and orange groves of the South."

NEW YORK.

The Cuban prisoners transferred to the Catharine Whiting are expected to be released this evening. The majority are Cubans. Senor Alfredo and Dr. Brocora have been lodged in Ludowestreet Jail. It is thought that Ryan and his men are now prisoners, as a revenue cutter has been sent to Gardner's Island with a fully armed crew and a posse of marshals. Report says they quarrelled among themselves, and three were killed and several wounded in a free fight yesterday.
