To the Associated Press.] THIS HERALD'S NOTIONS OF GRANT'S DUTY. NEW YORK, February S.—The Herald argues that from the events transpiring in Cuba, a policy of American intervention is imperatively forced upon the incoming Administration. Spain should be impressed with the conviction that she will not be permitted to destroy an American community because it refuses to be governed by her antiquated notions of public policy. In adopting this course General Grant has the opportunity to lay the corner-stone of the coming great American party in our National politics on foundations as broad and secure as were those laid by Jetferson and Jackson. The tone and temper of the people require such a party organization as shall ignore old party lines, and be tree from old party corruptions. The circumstances of as broad and secure as were those laid by Jaierson and Jackson. The tone and temper of the people require such a party organization as shall ignore oid party lines, and be tree from a party of the property of the property of our public atiairs, both domestic and foreign our public atiairs, both domestic and foreign are lavorable to it, and General Grant humself has the prestige necessary for its successful accomplishment. The initial step is involved in complishment. The initial step is involved in the prestigent of the property of the successful and be prepared to give it an early and prompt recognition.
