

THE New York Times of Saturday says: A report was current last evening that Colonel James Kerrigan was about raising a regiment, one thousand strong, to join in the Cuban revolution, and that the drilling was taking place in the upper part of Broadway.