

CUBAN CELEBRATION IN N W YORK.

NEW YORK, October 11.—Cooper Institute was crowded to night by friends of Cuba, to celebrate the first anniversary of its independence. Senor Lomus, the Cuban Minister to Washington, presided. Congratulatory telegrams were read from prominent persons in various parts of the country. Speeches were made by members of the Junta and others. The utmost enthusiasm prevailed.