

Cuba.

HAVANA, June 23, via Key West, June 25.—Gen. Buceta has arrived in Havana. He was hooted at Santiago, and on his arrival at Cienfuegos was only saved from the violence of the volunteers by the intercession of the Governor. He is now concealed in this city, and will be compelled to escape by stealth. The mobilized volunteers garrisoning Matanzas recently executed a young man, named Robinson, aged 19, son of a British resident, for carrying rebel correspondence.

Heavy skirmishes have taken place in the Cinco Villas districts, in which it is reported that one hundred and fifty Cubans and one hundred Spaniards were killed.

It is known that large sums of money are forwarded to the United States for the purchase of war material, and to aid the Cuban juntas in fitting out expeditions.

HAVANA, June 24.—Gen. Buceta, falsely reported to have been killed by his troops, has gone to New Orleans.

The cholera has broken out at Guantánamo and vicinity. Several cases occurred at Santiago.

The disease is raging with great severity in the interior.

About the last of May the schooner Grapeshot landed 40 men and a portion of her cargo on the Cuban coast. While the boats were landing the men, some of the passengers on board attempted to run the vessel ashore, when a fight ensued with the crew and officers, in which the captain of the Grapeshot received a bullet in his leg. The Grapeshot finally got rid of the whole party, and without landing all her stores, proceeded to Turk's Island, where she received a clearance, and arrived on 4th inst. at Falmouth, Jamaica. There were 155 packages of arms and ammunition remaining on board, which were seized by the customs officers, and the captain abandoned the vessel. The seizure was subsequently declared illegal, and the captain sued the Collector of the port and others for damages.

Several filibusters who landed at Batignera were executed at Santiago.

HAVANA, June 25. — The volunteer forces have, of their own free will, given up the duty of garrisoning the Moro Castle and Fort Cabanas, and will be relieved to-morrow by the naval forces. They have taken this action to convince the home government that they have no idea of disobeying its order, or opposing the new Captain General.
