

FOURTH OF JULY IN CUBA.—The Cuban patriots celebrated the birthday of American Independence with salutes and illuminations. Division commanders and other military officers issued general orders announcing the approach of the Fourth of July, and commanding an appropriate celebration. Here is Gen. Cavada's order :

HEADQUARTERS CIENFUEGOS DISTRICT
—Order of the Day : The citizen Captains of companies will see that the evening of the 4th of July, the ninety-second anniversary of the independence of the United States, is celebrated by brilliant illuminations. We who battle for the liberty of this beautiful portion of America ought to manifest our delight at the return of a day on which the noble people of the New World acquired their independence. Our country and liberty !

The citizen General commanding the Division. B. F. CAVADA.
