

CUBA. Some interesting facts about the Cuban revolution, are taken from the New York Sun of Wednesday :

In less than six months the revolution has spread until it now embraces an area of 20,000 out of the 30,000 square miles included in the whole island. Within these limits there are 147 cities, towns and villages, of which more than one-half are in the hands of the revolutionists. Out of the 150,000 men able to bear arms on the whole island, 45,000 are in the ranks of the patriots ; 30,000 of them being stationed in the eastern, and 15,000 in the central department. The total population of the district in rebellion is 548,738, of which there are in the eastern department 126,368 whites, 86,374 negroes free before the revolution, and 51,778 slaves just emancipated by the patriot leaders. In the central department the numbers are 172,567 whites, 42,444 negroes formerly free, and 69,207 slaves newly freed. The patriots have thus, it will be seen, given liberty to more than 120,000 slaves, and when they succeed in redeeming the whole island will do the same for 180,000 more. The estimated wealth of the real estate in the territory held by the patriots was, in 1862, $550,000,000, and its industry and commerce were reckoned as representing a capital of $774,000,000. The annual productions were : sugar, $62,000,000 ; tobacco, $15,000,000 ; other produce, $52,000,000.
