

FROM CUBA.

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.

A Santiago de Cuba letter of the 8th instant says there have been some cases of cholera in that town, but in the neighborhood Col. Abern lost fourteen out of twenty attacked by the disease, and numerous other deaths have taken place.