

FROM HAVANA.

HAVANA, Feb. 19.

Transports arrived yesterday with one thousand troops from Spain, and others arrived to-day with a thousand.

Orders have been issued requiring citizens to deliver to the authorities all private arms.

Gen. W. F. Smith positively declines the appointment of Consul General of the United States at Havana.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 19.

The trouble brewing between Cuban refugees and Spanish residents in this city has occasioned communications from the Spanish consul to the Governor, asking for Government interference for the prevention of difficulties likely to occur at any moment, and pledging his own efforts to prevent a disturbance of the peace. The matter has been referred to the Chief of Police.
