

Last Evening's Dispatches.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, March 19.

Senor Morales Lemus arrived in this city yesterday as minister from the provisional government of Cuba. Senor Lemus is fully empowered to treat with the government of the United States for a full recognition of the revolutionary government of the queen of the Antilles, and bears a commission to that effect from President Cespedes, who is now in command of the revolutionary forces. He will proceed to Washington at once.
