

Advices from the Cuban revolution are that the siege of Trinidad has been raised. It is stated that every Spaniard in the town of Maicao has been killed. The clergy have offered the Government one-sixth of their incomes to aid in defraying the expenses of the war.