

FROM HAVANA.

HAVANA, March

The insurgents in the Eastern district concentrated the forces at Mayari. Troops left Santiago to attack them.

A fight had occurred between the colored volunteers and a band of colored insurgents in neighborhood of Santiago de Cuba, in which seventeen of the latter are reported to have been killed.

The Captain General has recognized Hon. Hall as Consul General of the United States. Numerous arrests continue.

Three hundred and fifty additional troops have arrived.

It is believed here that General De Rivas replaces Count Valmaseda in command of the troops, but does not relieve Dulce as Captain General.

A force of cavalry has gone to Cienfuegos, and a battalion of volunteers is starting for the same place.

Reports have been received here of the landing of a revolutionary expedition near the mouth of the Saqua Lagrande River. The inhabitants of the vicinity sank the schooner in which they came to prevent their escape, and troops have been sent in pursuit.

Encounters of troops with the insurgents have taken place near Ramidios, Saqua Lagrande, Villa Clara, Cienfuegos and Trinidad, but the results are not stated.

Laborers are repairing the railroads at points as are deemed safe from the attacks of the insurgents.

The Voz de Cuba to-day publishes an account of the assassination of the sleeping crew of a steamer in Sangre, Chica River, by the insurgents. Still another schooner had landed a band of insurgents in Sangre. The citizens of the vessel to prevent their escape, and now government troops are marching against the party landed.