

FROM HAVANA,

HAVANA, April 21.

The Catalonian volunteers, accompanied by detachments of mobilized colored troops, sailed for Jibara.

Advices from Nuevita stated that Gen. Lesca had arrived there from Puerto Principe. He would take supplies of provisions and ammunition, and return.

Gen. Letonia is appointed to the command-in-chief of the Spanish forces in the central department. He has been reinforced with 7,000 troops from Havana, with which he will commence a vigorous campaign against the insurgents. One of the principal objects of the campaign will be the destruction of railroad communication with Nuevitas.

The steamer Borja, while on its way to Fernando Po with provisions from Havana, put into Porto Rico with machinery disabled.

Sugar unchanged.

Innocencio Casanovia has been released.