

FROM HAVANA.

HAVANA, June 25.

Gen. Buceta has arrived here. He was hooted at Santiago, and on his arrival at Cienfuegos was only saved from the violence of the volunteers by the intercession of the Governor. He is now concealed in this city, and will be compelled to escape by stealth.

The mobilized volunteers garrisoning Matanzas recently put to death a boy named Robinson, nineteen years of age, son of a British resident. He was charged with carrying correspondence for the insurgents.

Heavy skirmishes have taken place in the Cinco Villas district. It is reported that 150 Cubans and 100 Spaniards have been killed in these conflicts.

It is known that large sums of money are forwarded to the United States for the purchase of war-material, and to aid Cuban Juntas in fitting out expeditions.

Gen. Buceta, falsely reported to have been killed by his troops, has gone to New Orleans.

The cholera has broken out in Guantonomo and vicinity. There were several cases in Santiago, and the disease was reported to be raging with great severity in the interior, about the last of May.

The schooner Grapeshot landed forty men and a portion of her cargo on the Cuban coast. While the boats were landing the men, some of the passengers on board attempted to run the vessel ashore, and a fight took place with the crew and officers, in which the Captain of the Grapeshot received a bullet in his leg. The Grapeshot finally got rid of the whole party, and, without landing all of her cargo of stores, proceeded to Turks Island, where she received clearance, and arrived on the 4th inst. at Falmouth, Jamaica. There 155 packages of arms and ammunition remaining on board were seized by custom officers, and the Captain abandoned the vessel. The seizure was subsequently declared illegal, and the Captain has sued the collector of the port and others for damages.

Several filibusters of the party which landed at Battimuri were executed at Santiago.

The volunteer forces have, of their own free will, given up the duty of garrisoning Moro Castle and Fortress Cabanas, and will be relieved to-morrow by the naval forces. They have taken this action to convince the home Government that they had no idea of disobeying orders or of opposing the new Captain General, Do Rodas.

Advices from Port au Prince report that on the 12th inst. President Salnave, after bombarding Aux Cayes forty-eight hours, landed 800 men and assaulted the fortifications. He carried the forts, but the insurgents rallied and recaptured their works.

The rebel General Wisset Saget is dangerously ill.

The steamer Telegrafo, commanded by the Dominican rebel General Superon, had left St. Marias for St. Domingo.

The steamer Tibes arrived at St. Thomas on the 15th, and sailed next day for St. Domingo. Fabius, agent of Gen. Baez, was a passenger on his return from Washington.

Rumors are again revived of the cession of the Bay of Samana to the United States.

News has been received from the capital of St. Domingo to the 13th.

It is reported that Gen. Superon had arrived before Puerto Plata on board the Telegrafo and demanded the immediate and unconditional surrender of the place.

President Baez was making vigorous efforts to suppress outbreaks.

Arrivals from Caracas, June 8th, bring the report that the port of Maracaibo has been closed to commerce on account, it is supposed, of a local revolution.

HAVANA, June 25—Evening.

The reports of extraordinary mortality of cholera and dysentery in the ranks of the contending armies is fully confirmed.

Nothing is known about military movements, but it is supposed that all activity is suspended on both sides.

Gen. Caballero de la Rodas is expected to arrive here next Sunday.

NEW YORK, June 25.

Specials to the HERALD dated Havana 23, via Lake City 25, state that the Venezuelan Government has closed the port of Maracaibo because the state authorities had usurped the custom revenues.

Gen. Canbal and Superon have joined their forces against President Baez. The former landed at Azus with a strong force, and proposes to cut off all communication between the capital and the interior, while Gen. Superon will blockade the harbor with the steamer Telegrafo.

Col. U. S. Ashby, who was leader of Gen. Wade Hampton's scouts in the late rebellion, arrived at Nassau, last Monday, on his way to Cuba.

HAVANA, June 22, via Key West, June 23.

Gen. Puella has been relieved of his command, and has arrived here. He reports that five thousand reinforcements are needed in the Cinco Villas district.

Another filibustering expedition has landed on the southern coast.

The schooner Lahoro has been released, as a British vessel, and was towed to Jamaica by her captain. Her captain claims £100 damages for each day of her detention.

Commodore Phellimore has gone to Matanzas to investigate the assassination of an English boy. The English consul there regards the outrage as evidence of the inability of the authorities to protect foreigners.

Active steps are being taken to defend Matanzas and Carderso.

Advices of the 16th, from Nuevitas, report another engagement between Puerto del Padre and Los Tunas. The Spaniards, 800 strong, under General Terrer, were defeated, lost their cannon and retreated to Tunas. General Terrer sent for reinforcements and they had been forwarded.