

CUBAN AFFAIRS.

HAVANA, June 28.

Captain General De Rodas landed at 11 o'clock this morning. He was quietly received with the customary ceremonies. As soon as the Captain General was installed in the Palacio he issued a proclamation. He says the platform of his line of conduct is embraced in three words: "Spain, justice, morality." He thanked the volunteers for the services they have rendered in the cause of order, justice and public rights, and tells them that they ought to feel proud of their past actions. He closes with an allocution to the army and navy.

The DIARIO publishes an article full of the usual compliments for the new Captain General.

The PRENSA mentions the fact of General De Rodas's arrival in a brief article.

The VOICE DE CUBA approves of the proclamation in every respect, and hopes that De Rodas will act here as he did at Malaga and Cadiz.

The insurgents, 1,000 strong, attacked an encampment containing the garrison of Sabana Nuevi, near Puerto Principe, on the 20th inst., and captured the entire force of some eighty men. General Litona rallied from Puerto Principe to their succor, but arrived too late. He found that the rebels had destroyed the encampment and left four Spanish soldiers dead on the ground. General Litona returned to Puerto Principe on the 21st.

The PRENSA to-day acknowledges that the news lately received from Puerto Principe, Nuevitas and Sabana is unsatisfactory.

Advices of the 21st are received from Santiago. A number of filibusters, who landed from the schooner Graposhot, and subsequently fell into the hands of the troops, had been executed there. Among them were Charles Speakman, of Aurora, Indiana, Albert Wyeth, of N. Y., Carlos Quenones, Martin Justos and Haverz Esteoz.

Three filibusters named Pedro Haldez, Josephina and Gregorio Rodrienz were shot on the 21st inst., near Quantanamo.

Reinforcements left Nuevitas on the 21th inst. for Puerto Principe.

Gen. Escalante is sick.

The general headquarters of the insurgents are established on the Elcercado plantation, and it is reported that the Cuban Generals Quesada, Valdez, Castillo, and Bemoita have met there and united their forces.

Col. Berengassish has arrived here in bad health.

The cholera continues in the towns in the interior.

Report says that a majority of the men who landed from the Peirot, and from other vessels, have either been killed by the troops or died from disease.

Gen. Ferrer remains at Puerto del Padre.

The insurgents have burned Atalaya plantation, owned by Col. Albear.

Several skirmishes are reported in various parts of the island, resulting for the Government troops.

HAVANA, June 28.

Gen. Caballero de Rodas arrived in the harbor this morning. He brings with him a force of 900 regular troops. The volunteers have assembled and are making preparations to receive the new Captain General. He will land at noon.
