
The Cubans and the Wounded Gunner.

The members of the Cuban Junta have resolved to take care of the family of NAUDRUS MUNN, whose hand was blown off by the premature discharge of the gun while firing the salute in the City Hall Park on Monday afternoon. A subscription list has been opened by prominent Cubans, and every effort will be made to raise a large sum of money for the sufferer and his family.

MUNN is in the City Hospital, where his right arm was amputated just below the elbow. Señor HERNANDEZ, a gentleman employed in the Junta's office No. 71 Broadway, visited him yesterday, and reports that he is doing well.
