

More Disturbances in Havana—Men, Women and Children Killed Sunday Night—Capture of a Schooner.

HAVANA, Jan. 25, 1892.

Most of the recent troubles between the citizens and soldiers in this city have taken place in the Jesus Maria ward. Yesterday afternoon these disturbances broke out again in the same quarter. Some people on the housetops fired on the volunteers in the streets and the latter returned the fire. It is not known whether any one was killed.

At a late hour in the evening the house of Señor Aldama, a rich planter, who is suspected of giving aid and comfort to the revolutionists, was entered by police officers, supported by a guard of volunteers, and searched for arms supposed to be hidden there. The building was badly damaged by the troops. The Spaniards assert that this house was one of those from which the volunteers were fired upon.

At nine o'clock on the same night in the vicinity of the Louvre coffee house and the Tacon theatre opposite shots were fired at some volunteers, who were passing through the street. The lower hall of the Louvre was crowded with people, who were entirely ignorant of what was going on outside or on the upper floors of the building. The detachment of volunteers halted, faced the Louvre and fired upon the guests indiscriminately, with fatal effect. Several Spanish gentlemen, government employes and officers of the army were killed. Two German merchants, named Rockling and Lappenberg, and many other persons were dangerously wounded.

Samuel Cohnner, a well known photographer from the United States, was attacked and killed near the Louvre about the same time by some armed men, who are supposed to have belonged to the volunteer force.

While the audience was leaving the Villanueva theatre shots were fired by which two ladies and several children were killed.

The American schooner Arrieta, formerly a Key West wrecker, has been brought to this port as a prize by the Spanish gunboat Delta, on suspicion of carrying supplies to the rebels. When discovered they pretended to be engaged in wrecking a ship lost on the Colorado reef. The Arrieta cleared from Key West on the 5th for Sisal.

Meeting of Volunteer Officers—Measures to Prevent Further Disturbances—The City Again Quiet.

HAVANA, Jan. 25—6 P. M.

A meeting of the commanders of the volunteer forces in this city was held to-day. Captain General Dulce was present, and said he deplored the recent occurrences. It was resolved that all volunteers, excepting those on guard, shall hereafter remain at their homes and only come out when a signal of twelve guns is fired or at the command of their chief officers. Meantime, until the arrival of additional regular troops from Spain, sailors from the Spanish men-of-war in the harbor are to perform patrol duty, and they are now patrolling the streets outside the walls.

Business has been suspended since the commencement of the disturbances with the volunteers; but the people are now greatly relieved. The feeling of security is growing stronger, as the sailors are well disciplined, sober and faithful, and perform their duties to the satisfaction of all. The city is now (six P. M.) perfectly quiet.

The City Quiet at Ten o'Clock P. M.—The Murder of Mr. Cohnner Denounced.

HAVANA, Jan. 25—10 P. M.

All quarters of the city, inside and outside of the walls, are quiet. Nothing has occurred to-night to disturb the public tranquillity.

The killing of Mr. Cohnner is the general theme of conversation, and is looked upon as a cowardly assassination.
