

FOREIGN MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

The old citadel of Antwerp has been sold to a Prusso-Belgian company for the sum of $3,000,000.

The chemist and druggists' assistants in Paris are about to strike. A committee has submitted an offer to the employers.

The Imparcial of Madrid, of October 30, strongly advocates the election of the young Duke of Genoa to the throne of Spain.

Two new journals have started as advocates of the cause of Cuba—La Patria, of Madrid, and La Convention Americaine, of Geneva.