

Numbers of volunteer corps are being got ready to embark for Cuba. In this city alone there are 2,000 ready to start. They are to receive sixteen reals a day on landing in Cuba, and eight reals a day till that time. This is a large amount for a Spanish soldier, and makes one suspect very much the despatches published about the Cuban insurrection being crushed out.