
CUBA.

More Plantations Burned—Departure of Volunteers for Cinco Villas—Engine Explosion.

HAVANA, Nov. 17, 1869.

A report has been received from Villa Nueva of an explosion of a locomotive which was standing at the depot. Engineers and several others were wounded.

The Rosarita and Flora plantations near Cienfuegos have been burned.

A battalion of mobilized volunteers has gone to Cinco Villas.
