

Cuba.

The case of Henry J. Koppers, a former HERALD correspondent at Havana, who was arrested by the authorities for conveying news outside the jurisdiction of Havana, has been taken in hand by the British Consul, Mr. Koppers being a British subject. The papers in the case have been forwarded to Earl Clarendon.

*