

Cuba.

The Spaniards in Havana are satisfied with President Grant's Message, while the Cubans are sadly disappointed. A provision train, under a convoy of Spanish troops, from Manzanillo to Las Tunas, was attacked by insurgents and harassed all the distance.