

CUBA.

Surrender of Insurgents at Baracoa.

BARACOA, Jan. 19, 1869.

I wrote you some few days since in regard to what was passing here. The insurgents have discontinued their attacks on the town and have since disappeared.

Day before yesterday there appeared at La Posada, a place a short distance from here, a body of about 2,000 men, who sent in a flag of truce and surrendered to the authorities, accepting the amnesty proclamation. Affairs are now quiet in this vicinity.
