The Reported Heavy Battle in the Central Department Denied—Only a Skirmish—Arrival of the Contoocook at Havana.

HAVANA, March 27, 1869.

The report published here a few days ago that a heavy battle had been fought between the government troops, under General Puello, and insurgents in the Eastern Department, at some point on the road from Remedios to Moron, is untrue. The engagement was only a slight skirmish between the troops of General Puello and 800 insurgents.

The United States flagship Contoocook, Admiral Hoff commanding, arrived here to-day from Key West.

Wreck of a Schooner—Passengers Take Possession of a Steamer and Proceed to Nassau.

HAVANA, March 26, 1869.

The schooner Virginia Price, from Manzanilla for New York, with lumber, was wrecked Saturday on the Jardineillas Reefs and became a total loss. The crew were saved.

The steamer Comanditario, the regular packet between Havana and Cardenas, left this port on Tuesday evening last for her regular trip to Cardenas, carrying about forty passengers. Nothing was heard of the steamer afterwards until to-day, and fears were entertained for her safety. The news received to-night, however, announces that several of the passengers of this steamer, who had lately been prisoners in Fort Cabanas, threatened the crew, took possession of the steamer and disembarked the lady passengers, a portion of the crew and the captain at Roques Key, near Cardenas. The Comanditario then proceeded, it is supposed, to Nassau, N. P. The disembarked crew and passengers were subsequently taken up at Roques Key and carried to Cardenas.

Whereabouts of the Captured Steamer—A Spanish War Vessel Gone in Pursuit—A New Governor of Trinidad Appointed—A Cuban Traitor—Skirmishes.

HAVANA, March 27, 1869.

The steamer Comanditario, which was lately taken possession of by her passengers, carried but one day's supply of coal. Vessels which arrived here to-day report seeing the Comanditario off Styrup Keys, under sail. Others report seeing her anchored off the Bahama banks, 100 miles from Nassau. A Spanish man-of-war has gone in pursuit of her.

Captain General Dulce has appointed Minano Governor of Trinidad, in place of Patmo.

Intelligence received from Sagua is to the effect that a party of young Cubans had organized themselves into a military company with the intention of joining the insurgents. They were betrayed, however, by one of their number, and all, including Meduro, the reputed leader, imprisoned.

The Havana journals publish despatches from all parts of the island. The news received is favorable to the government. Reports of several skirmishes between the troops and insurgents have been received.

The bark Cuba arrived here to-day from New York.

A Gunboat Gone to Intercept an Expedition From Nassau—The Peruvian Monitor at Puerto Naranjo.

HAVANA, March 27, 1869.

The steamer Comercio has been armed and fitted out as a gunboat, and to-day sailed from Cardenas to intercept an expedition expected from Nassau.

The Peruvian monitor remained four days at Puerto Naranjo, four leagues from Gibara, during which time the crew were engaged in cutting wood for the purpose of supplying steam.

The bark Stover arrived to-day from New York.

Arrival of More Troops at Havana.

HAVANA, March 27, 1869.

Five hundred soldiers have arrived here from Spain to reinforce the Spanish army on the island.
