

THE NEWS.

---

Europe.

The cable telegrams are dated March 3.

The ex-King of Hanover has issued a protest against the confiscation of his property by the Prussian government.

A number of Carlist leaders were arrested yesterday in Arragon. A quantity of ammunition and arms were also discovered and seized. Important letters, it is further stated, fell into the hands of the government.

Central Asia.

The latest advices received from India say that the difficulties in Cabool are not as disastrous as at first reported.

Cuba.

The reported surrender of the revolutionary General Arango is denied. One thousand additional troops have arrived from Spain. J. M. Uley, the clerk at the American Consulate, who was imprisoned a month ago, has been released. The brig J. D. Lincoln had finally obtained a clearance.

Admiral Hoff has half his squadron in Cuban waters, and is displaying considerable activity. The Catholic clergy are Havana is subscribing to the support of the volunteers.

The departure of a large filibustering expedition from Nassau is reported.