Arrival of the Captured Steamer at Nassau—
The Abandoned Schooner Found—Incendiaries Captured and Executed—Arrival of Fresh Troops from Spain.

HAVANA, April 1, 1869.

The steamer Comanditario has arrived at Nassau, and her captors at last accounts had abandoned her and gone ashore. She will probably be taken possession of and brought back to Havana by a Spanish man-of-war.

The Spanish war steamer Guadalquiver found a schooner abandoned near Siguane and took her to Batabano. This schooner is supposed to be the vessel which recently landed a cargo of arms on the coast near Cienfuegos.

In the Sagua district seven incendiaries were caught and were executed on the plantations which they had destroyed.

Fresh troops from Spain arrived and disembarked this morning.
