Prisoners for Fernando Po.

HAVANA, April 21, 1869.

Señor Innocencio Casanova has been released from prison by order of Captain-General Dulce.

The steamer Borjaa, conveying the political prisoners to Fernando Po, having injured her machinery was compelled to make for Porto Rico. She was to proceed on her voyage to-day.

Volunteers Gone to Gibara—Arrival of General Lesca at Nuevitas—Letona to Command the Forces in the Central Department.

HAVANA, April 21, 1869.

The Catalonian volunteers, accompanied by a detachment of mobilized colored troops, have sailed for Gibara.

Advices from Nuevitas state that General Lesca had arrived there from Puerto Principe. He would take supplies of provisions and ammunition and return.

General Setona has been appointed to the command-in-chief of the Spanish forces in the Central Department. He has been reinforced with 7,000 troops from Havana, with which he will commence a vigorous campaign against the insurgents in that department. One of the principal objects of the campaign will be the restoration of railroad communication with Nuevitas.

A steamer arrived to-day with 1,000 regular troops from Spain.

Arrived, steamer Columbia and bark Ella, from New York.
