Atrocious Orders of Valmaseda—All Native Males Found Away From Their Residences to be Executed—All Dwellings Not Displaying a White Flag to be Burned.

KEY WEST, Fla., April 29, 1869.

The following important despatch was received here by mail from Bayamo, Cuba:—

Count Valmaseda, the commander of the Spanish forces in the Eastern Department, has issued a proclamation, whereof the following are the chief features:—

First.—Every native male over fifteen years of age found away from his residence without sufficient cause will be executed.

Second.—Every uninhabited dwelling, and every inhabited dwelling where a white flag is undisplayed, will be reduced to ashes.

Third.—All women away from their houses will come to Bayamo or Jiguaní, or they will be brought by force.

The proclamation is dated Bayamo, April 4.

Insubordination of the Volunteers in Fort Cabana—The Revolution Gaining Strength—Sickness Among the Spanish Troops.

HAVANA, April 28, 1869. }

VIA KEY WEST, April 29, 1869. }

The Second battalion of volunteers, commanded by Colonel Zeuluta and forming the garrison of Fort Cabana, in the harbor of Havana, having refused to obey an order for the release of a prisoner, General Dulce and staff were obliged to proceed to the fort in full uniform to effect a change in their disposition. The Captain General made an address to the volunteers, when they suffered the prisoner to depart under escort of government troops. The action of the volunteers has occasioned great indignation on the part of the public, and threats are made against the Second battalion in case they lay down their arms, which is not, however, anticipated.

The revolution in the Eastern Department is gaining strength. The Spanish troops in that portion of the island are suffering greatly from sickness. The Cubans are besieging and constantly harassing them, and the capture of various convoys causes scarcity of supplies and ammunition in the Spanish ranks.

The Spanish frigate Gerona has returned to this port.
