

CUBA.

Failure of the Confiscation Project—Arrival of an American Consular Agent—Movements of War Vessels.

HAVANA, April 8, 1862.

The proposed confiscation of the property of all Cubans absent from the island was officially before the Administrative Council to-day. The project was declared to be unprecedentedly unjust and after discussion it was tabled.

Leopold A. Price is the American Consular agent at Neuvas, in the absence of Consul Gibbs, who has gone to Washington.

The British war steamer Mullet has arrived from Vera Cruz.

The Spanish war steamer Pizarro has gone to Nassau.

A Naturalized American Citizen to be Garroted To-Day—His Offence—News from the Seat of War Contradictory.

HAVANA, April 8, 1862.

Francisco Leon Nuez, a Cuban by birth, but a naturalized American citizen, and Augustin Medina are to be garroted to-morrow. They were arrested in January last in charge of a depot of arms in Havana, several police officers having been killed and wounded in the fight which occurred at the time.

The Treasurer of the Royal University has fled to the United States with its funds.

The news from the seat of war is so contradictory and partisan as to be utterly unreliable.