

CUBA.

Organization of the Republican Government— Cabinet Appointments of President Cespedes.

We understand that President Cespedes has organized his full Cabinet for the administration of the republican government in Cuba, and that the nominations are as follows:—

Francisco V. Aguilera, Secretary of War.

Eligio Izaguirra, Secretary of the Treasury.

Cristobal Mendoza, Secretary of State.

Edwardo Agramonte, Secretary of the Interior.

The following is the official circular announcing the respective appointments:—

PRESIDENCY OF THE CUBAN REPUBLIC.

CIRCULAR.—In all things it is necessary to establish order for their proper arrangement, and this is the more indispensable in the offices of government, whose affairs cannot be properly administered if they are not well organized with a regular course of action. With this object, and desiring that the machinery of government shall work without obstruction in its regular course, the administration is divided into four principal departments, which are—the Departments of War, Treasury, State and Foreign Relations and Interior—which offices are from this moment placed in charge of citizens Francisco V. Aguilera, Eligio Izaguirra, Cristobal Mendoza and Eduardo Agramonte, each one in the order in which the departments are named. Therefore, in order that the regularity which I desire may be obtained, I direct you to address to them in future your communications, they being the proper channels through which these should reach the Executive power or flow from it to the chiefs and subordinates of the departments and public offices. Patria and liberty.

CARLOS M. DE CESPEDES.

GUAIMARO, April 14, 1862.