

THE CUBAN CAUSE IN NEW YORK.—The organization which speaks in the name of the Cuban revolutionists in this city has issued a manifesto, addressed to the native patriots and lovers of liberty generally, which we publish to-day. The exciting causes of the movement on the island—the oppressions of Spain and inherent love of the right of self government—are recapitulated and reaffirmed in language which cannot be mistaken either by enemies or friends. The cause of Cuba progresses.
