
UNITED STATES MARSHAL'S OFFICE.

Reported Departure of an Expedition for Cuba.

It was rumored yesterday that an expedition, consisting of about 300 armed men, left for Cuba on Monday night from one of the docks on the Jersey shore. In order not to be in need of the good things of this world the report further adds that a carefully selected stock of provisions sufficient to last for two months was taken on board. Marshal Barlow, it is said, telegraphed to the Secretary of State, but had not received any answer whatever. Whether the vision of some spectator from the "flats" was rendered dim by ordinary circumstances has not transpired, but it is certain if any vessel left New Jersey shore its occupants were as wise as they were wise in attending to the inner man. At last accounts the floating arsenal had not been sighted at Sandy Hook.
