Exodus of Cubans—More Revolutionary Movements by the Volunteers—General Lesca
Killed at Trinidad—Nuevas Railroad Again
Cut—Slavers to Arrive.

HAVANA, June 7, }
VIA KEY WEST, June 9, 1869. }

The exodus of Cubans from this portion of the island has again commenced.

The Committee of the Volunteers met yesterday,
but adjourned without taking any definite line of action.

It is reported that Señor Roberts, the Spanish Minister at Washington, has telegraphed to them warning them of the precarious and revolutionary position they hold.

In Trinidad the volunteers attempted to depose the Governor, who resisted their demands, and the result was that General Lesca was killed.

The newly arrived volunteers from the Basque provinces have been sent to reinforce Villa Clara.

Advices from Nuevas state that the railroads between that place and Puerto Principe have been again cut by the insurgents, and that communication with the latter place is interrupted.

The government has been informed of two slavers
that are expected to arrive.

Junction of General Jordan with General Quesada—Skirmishes Near Trinidad—Quiet
in Havana—The Sugar Market.

HAVANA, June 9, 1869.

The fact is now established beyond a doubt that the filibusters who landed in the Bay of Nipe have effected a junction with the forces of Quesada.

The troops have had several skirmishes with the insurgents recently, near Trinidad.

The city of Havana is quiet.

The steamer Eagle, from New York, arrived this morning.

The sugar market is heavy; sales were made today on the basis of 8½ a 8¾ reals per arroba for No.
12 Dutch Standard.

Active Offensive Measures of the Patriots—
Spanish Canards.

WASHINGTON, June 9, 1869.

Information from reliable sources in Havana has been received, which shows that the Cubans are making an active offensive movement, and were never in better spirits or more sanguine of success.

Telegrams from Havana deny the report that any number of Cubans or any officer of the Cuban forces had surrendered to Valmaseda. There was great excitement in Cuban circles on Sunday night, occasioned by the reports of the surrender of Cespedes, which originated in the telegram sent over by the Spanish officials of Cuba; but subsequent despatches received from Cuban sources proved the report entirely unfounded.
