Complications Between the Captain General and the Volunteers.

WASHINGTON, June 11, 1899.

Recent advices from Cuba state that the difficulty between the Spanish officials and the organized volunteers is on the increase, and the latter have now almost entire control of the government of the island. Such is their power that they forced the acting Captain General to countermand the requisition of Dulce on the home government for a reinforcement of five thousand regular troops.

Reported Landing of Filibusters Unconfirmed—Rumors of Insurgents Surrendering—Affairs Quiet at Bayamo.

HAVANA, June 11, 1899.

The reports that an expedition of filibusters had landed at Aguadores, near Santiago, and that another expedition was on the south side of the island, waiting to land, are unconfirmed.

The rumor that the war steamer Luisa had sunk two vessels bringing filibusters to aid the revolutionists is also unconfirmed.

The journals and private letters announce that many of the insurgents are surrendering to Valmaseda.

Affairs remain tranquil in the vicinity of Bayamo and Manzanillo.
