

Cuba.

The members of the Cuban Junta in this city, including Señors Lemus, the Minister of the Cuban republic to this country; Mora, Ryan and others, were arrested at a late hour on Wednesday night, on an indictment charging them with setting on foot military operations against Spain, a country with which the United States is at peace. They appeared in the Circuit Court yesterday morning, before Judge Blatchford, and gave bail in $7,500 to appear for trial and to keep the peace. The whole movement is said to have been instituted by the Spanish Minister, Roberts, as Secretary Fish knew nothing whatever of it until told by our Washington correspondent. Several prominent Cubans in Washington have disappeared, in alarm at these arrests.

Several filibustering expeditions are reported to have recently landed on the Cuban coast. One of them is said to have been cut off and annihilated by the Spaniards, but the report is doubted. The rest have joined General Jordan. Arbitrary arrests are still being made by the Spanish authorities.

The Cuban agents at Washington have learned that the recent victory at Puerto del Padre opens communication for the insurgents with the coast and they are now enabled to protect the landing of filibusters. Some solicitude is felt about Jordan's command, which was represented to be in close proximity to a large Spanish force, but our correspondent at Santiago (May 28) states that it has certainly joined the native troops.
