

CUBA.

Insurgents' Correspondence for New York Captured—Order to Commanders of Jurisdiction—No Arrests to Be Made on Vague Suspicion—Legal Rights of Foreigners to Be Respected.

HAYANA, July 10, 1889.

A quantity of correspondence from the rebel army to parties in New York, designed to be sent by steamer Morro Castle, has been intercepted at Databano, and the persons in whose possession it was found have been arrested.

Captain General de Rodas has issued a general order to the commanders of the different jurisdictions of the island. The Captain General enjoins upon them to respect the lives of all unarmed citizens; to arrest no one on vague suspicions; instructs them to rigidly respect all legal rights of foreigners; says that the government will hold the officers of the army responsible for the good discipline of the troops, and instructs them to forward to him despatches relative to matters in their departments, containing only facts as they transpire.

News from Insurgent Sources—Nuevitas Reinforced—No Movements of Importance—Condition of the Cuban Army.

WASHINGTON, July 10, 1889.

The Cuban partisans have the following advices from Nuevitas and Puerto Principe to the 27th ult., and from Puerto del Padre and Las Tunas to the 28th. They say there has been no movement of a decided character in either district. The Spaniards have been reinforced at Nuevitas, and are thus enabled to retain possession of the railroad from that city to Puerto Principe, and give succor to the garrison of the latter named city, which is threatened by the Cubans under Quesada. In the district of Puerto del Padre there have been several skirmishes. The health of the Cuban army is reported good and the soldiers well organized. There is great anxiety to learn the views of the United States government and the position it will occupy in the contest.