deneral Caballero Rodus continues master of the stinution of ar. If any Governor ever was fit it even it it would appear that he is the man. If seems fully equal to the task. Yet, situated as he is the most anomalous position possible, and bein surrounded by so many discordant elements, arisin from a variety of incongratiles, it is questionably whether even he will be able to get clear out of at it he satisfaction of his government, the Spanis residents and the different Cuban partisans.

Austiciero. He very soon discovered task of all it imprisonments made on political grounds the minimprisonments made on political grounds the more from personal acts of vengeance, or from mercenary motives. If public rumors might alway be believed, it would appear that even the Clift Oo emor has been whitepered in connection with these but this may be a calumny. Several, however, the so-called "political prisoners" have been relased, simply because Rodas gave himself the troble to have their "cases" investigated; and not on was there no evidence brought against the for such imprisonment, but in many is stances no "cases" whatever were found to exist stances no "cases" whatever were found to exist the very laudable act of the first authority seen to have mightily displeased some of it Spaniards, especially our over zeatous citizen so diera.
